From its beginning as a brief diversion, the film medium evolved into an art form and means of communication that so permeates our lives that we can scarcely escape its sights and sounds.

MOORESTOWN FRIENDS SCHOOL

It is very important that we remember after our season of toil that the Class of 1977 has immortalized itself through this yearbook. We would like to give recognition and immortality to Ms. Louise Morgan Geary. Ms. Geary has expressed in class many times the desire to have her work hereafter remembered. The Class of 1977 wishes to give Ms. Geary immortality now because she is an admired, respected, and beloved teacher. As long as this yearbook continues to be read throughout our lifetime the Class of 1977 will be remembered and Ms. Louise Morgan Geary will be remembered as a dynamic teacher upon whom the Class of 1977 has bestowed immortality.

There's a lady who's sure all that glitters is gold
And she's buying a stairway to Heaven
And when she gets there she knows if the stores are closed
With a word she can get what she came for

There's a sign on the wall but she wants to be sure
Cause you know sometimes words have two meanings
In a tree by the brook there's a songbird who sings sometimes
All of our thoughts are misgiven

There's a feeling I get when I look to the West
And my spirit is crying for leaving
In my thoughts I have seen rings of smoke through the trees
And the voices of those who stand looking

And it's whispered that soon if we all call the tune
Then the piper will lead us to reason
And a new day will dawn for those who stand long
And the forests will echo with laughter

And it makes me wonder

If there's a bustle in your hedgerow
don't be alarmed now
It's just a spring clean for the May-Queen
Yes there are two paths you can go by but in the long run
There's still time to change the road you're on

Your head is humming and it won't go – in case you don't know
The piper's calling you to join him
Dear lady can you hear the wind blow and did you know
Your stairway lies on the whispering wind

And as we wind on down the road
Our shadows taller than our soul
There walks a lady we all know
Who shines white light and wants to show
How everything still turns to gold
And if you listen very hard
The tune will come to you at last
When all are one and one is all
To be a rock and not to roll

In the beginning Man created God; and in the image of Man created he him.

2 And Man gave unto God a multitude of names, that he might be Lord over all the earth when it was suited to Man.

3 And on the seven millionth day Man rested and did lean heavily on his God and saw that it was good.

4 And Man formed Aqualung of the dust of the ground, and a host of others likened unto his kind.

5 And these lesser men Man did cast into the void. And some were burned; and some were put apart from their kind.

6 And Man became the God that he had created and with his miracles did rule over all the earth.

7 But as all these things did come to pass, the Spirit that did cause man to create his God lived on within all men: even within Aqualung.

8 And man saw it not.

9 But for Christ's sake he'd better start looking.

Born to Run

In the day we sweat it out in the streets of a runaway American dream
At night we ride through mansions of glory in suicide machines
Sprung from cages out on Highway 9
Chrome wheeled, fuel injected
And steppin' out over the line
Baby, this town rips the bones from your back
It's a death trap, it's a suicide rap
We gotta get out while we're young
'Cause tramps like us, baby we were born to run.

— Bruce Springsteen

Wish You Were Here

So, so you think you can tell Heaven from Hell, blue skies from pain.
Can you tell a green field from a cold steel rail? A smile from a veil?
Do you think you can tell?

And did they get you to trade your heroes for ghosts? Hot ashes for trees?
Hot air for a cool breeze? Cold comfort for change?
And did you exchange a walk-on part in the war for a lead role in a cage?

How I wish, how I wish you were here.
We're just two lost souls swimming in a fishbowl, year after year.
Running over the same old ground. What have we found? The same old fears.
Wish you were here.

— Pink Floyd

I'm addressing you.
Are you going to let your emotional life be run by Time Magazine?
I'm obsessed by Time Magazine.
I read it every week.
Its cover stares at me every time I slink past the corner candystore.
I read it in the basement of the Berkeley Public Library.
It's always telling me about responsibility. Businessmen are serious.
Movie producers are serious. Everybody's serious but me.
It occurs to me that I am in America.
I am talking to myself again.

Psychoneurotic Disorders

Impulsive Behavior

The impulsive style is marked by an impairment of deliberateness and intention. The person acts on impulse, whim, or urge, as though a short circuit occurs between stimulus (whether arising internally or externally) and response. Impulsive activity is not limited to small and inconsequential acts, but also includes monumental and frequently catastrophic ones. The impulsive individual may offer the seemingly shallow but matter-of-fact explanation, "I just felt like it." On scrutiny, the act appears to be a response to an affect only dimly perceived. Patients tolerate frustration or tension poorly, and if discomfited they strike out in an antisocial way. This pattern is reflected in the concrete and passive thinking shown in attempting to explain their behavior. The urge to do something is offered as a complete and sufficient explanation for their act. Their concerns are sharply restricted, with an apparent absence of, or intolerance of, imagination and speculation. They may become sociopaths, and dependent on alcohol or drugs.

I made an ark from the light of the stars
And I hewed two mesas of bright silver metal
That sang in the sun like a sail in the wind
And I weave my way back to you
Now I can fly
— Marty Balin and Paul Kantner

John Nickerson Mills

Ticking away the moments that make up a dull day
You fritter and waste the hours in an offhand way
Kicking around on a piece of ground in your home town
Waiting for someone or something to show you the way

Tired of lying in the sunshine staying home to watch the rain
You are young and life is long and there is time to kill today
And then one day you find ten years have got behind you
No one told you when to run, you missed the starting gun

And you run and you run to catch up with the sun, but it's sinking
And racing around to come up behind you again
The sun is the same in the relative way, but you're older
And shorter of breath and one day closer to death

Every year is getting shorter, never seem to find the time
Plans that either come to naught or half a page of scribbled lines
Hanging on in quiet desperation is the English way
The time is gone the song is over, thought I'd something more to say.

How can we ever believe that all this will cease to be? Instead we are sailing the ocean and smiling at daybreak and eagerly pushing toward the morning ahead when words will be forgotten, when only the song of the totality and our own mutual loving vibration will be heard on the earth. We are young and did not create the poisons which have killed our parents, and do not indulge in them. We are young and demand the right to live and to love each other and to play on the gorgeous incredible planet. For what else would make sense in a world so close to the end? we are coming to get you, over the waters in our homespun craft, we hope you'll be ready to go when we get there... To go to the farm in time for sunrise in Warm....

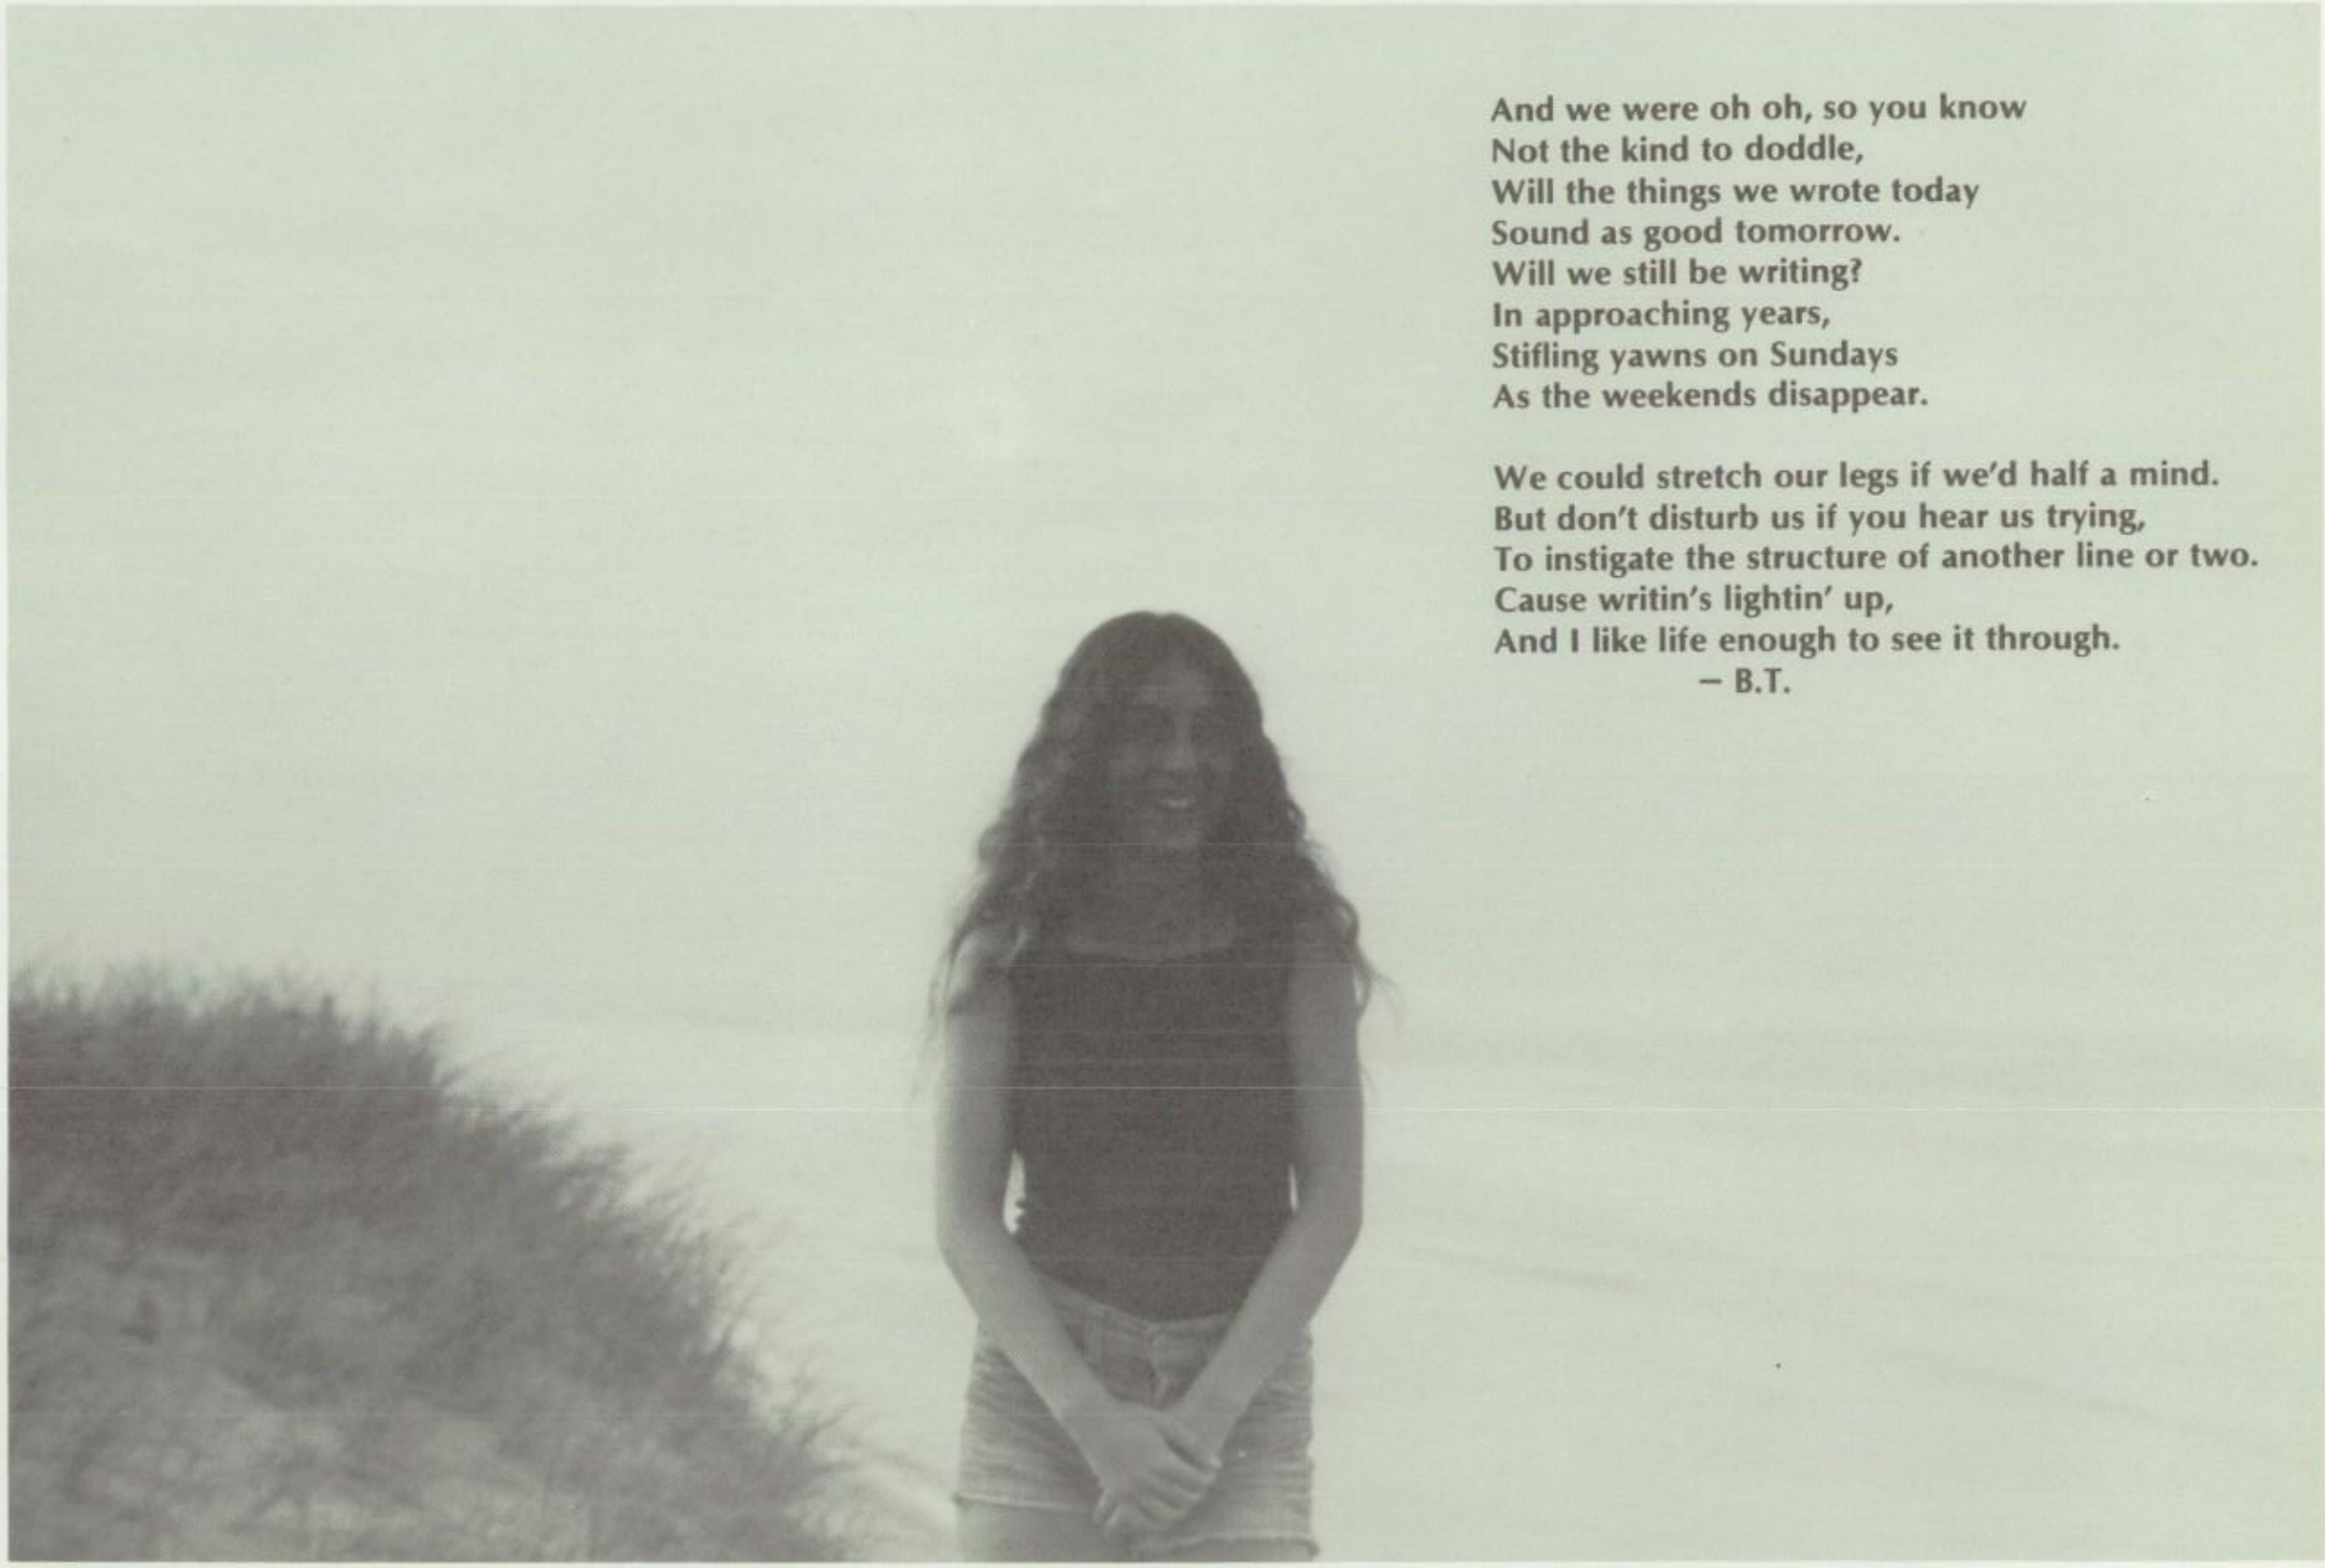
Tom Canawati alias "Arab"



And we were oh oh, so you know
Not the kind to doddle,
Will the things we wrote today
Sound as good tomorrow.
Will we still be writing?
In approaching years,
Stifling yawns on Sundays
As the weekends disappear.

We could stretch our legs if we'd half a mind.
But don't disturb us if you hear us trying,
To instigate the structure of another line or two.
Cause writin's lightin' up,
And I like life enough to see it through.

We leave: part of ourselves,
We take: sand in our cuffs, rocks, shells, moss, acorns, driftwood,
cones, pebbles, flowers,
Photographs.

But is the picture a tenth of the thing?
A hundreth?
Is it anything without the smell and salt breeze and the yellow warmth when the fog lifts?

Oh! but I got all that, too.
It is exposed for ever on the sensitive emulsion sheet
Of my mind.

The manifestation of the universe as a complex idea unto itself as opposed to being in or outside the true Being of itself is inherently a conceptual nothingness or Nothingness in relation to any abstract form of existing or to exist or having existed in perpetuity and not subject to laws of physicality or motion or ideas relating to non-matter or the lack of objective Being or subjective otherness.

A smiling face is an earthlike star,
A frown can't bring out the beauty that you are.
Love within and you'll begin smiling
There're brighter days ahead.
Don't mess your face up with bitter tears
'Cause life is gonna be what it is.
It's okay please don't delay from smiling
There're brighter days ahead.
A smiling face you don't have to see,
'Cause it's as joyful as a Christmas tree.
Love within and you'll begin smiling
There're brighter days ahead.
Love's not competing it's on your side
You're in life's picture so why must you cry:
So for a friend please begin to smile please.
There're brighter days ahead.

Stay as cool as you are, have a great year and a cool summer!

When the projector in my mind plays back the Moorestown Friends School footage, the first frames will be of a long hallway lined with multicolored lockers. Only in one school would the lockers have been painted in a computer designed sequence. I'll think of the classes spent in circles and the Meetings spent in rows. A few scenes will give me a twinge: tossing my trash in the dishwater and throwing away my silverware, unplanned fire drills, watching soccer games in the rain. People's faces will flicker by, some as gray and nameless as the first day I saw th m. A different feeling will come for each of the others, persistent associations I can't remember making.
